Apologies from: Cllr. Jim Donnelly.

Also present: Two members of the public – Mr. Stephen Gosling and Mrs. Meryl Besant.

The Extraordinary Meeting was held to receive the results of the village vote on the relocation of the cenotaph.

Two members of the public were present to adjudicate the counting beforehand of the votes.

The results of the vote were:-

For the relocation - 94 votes

Against the relocation – 48 votes

This gave a 66% for the relocation of the cenotaph.

The Parish Council had agreed to respect the outcome of the vote as it was a decision to be made by the village and not by the Parish Council.

Councillors were asked if they would agree with the final count.

The Chairman would post the results on the Notice Board. Clerk would record the decision.
